A genuinely anonymous wellbeing pulse, with trends leadership can act on.

A scheduled, anonymous wellbeing check-in for your whole organisation. Responses are truly anonymous — there's no link back to individual staff — with a minimum response threshold before any results are shown, so no one can be identified even in small teams. Results feed into trend reporting and an optional "what we heard" share-back to staff.

KEY FEATURES

- ✓ Scheduled pulse surveys — weekly, fortnightly or monthly cadence, sent automatically once configured
- ✓ Trend reporting — organisation and department-level trends over time, not just a single snapshot
- ✓ Psychosocial reporting option — anonymous psychosocial intake with tiered access, supporting current Australian codes of practice
- ✓ Genuinely anonymous — no link to individual staff; a minimum response count is enforced before any breakdown is shown
- ✓ "What we heard" share-back — an easy way to close the loop with staff on what the pulse data showed
- ✓ Mobile-friendly check-ins — a short, low-friction survey staff can complete from their phone in under a minute
